

DIGNITY 2020

Femicide - #OnelsTooMany

WHAT

DIGNITY is an international conference that honours dignity and resistance to violence and other forms of injustice.

The conference brings together practitioners, activists, and academics from around the world, with a common interest in improving social responses to all forms of violence and oppression, with a focus on gender based and colonial violence. DIGNITY has previously been held in Canada, Australia, and Sweden.

The overall theme of DIGNITY 2020 is femicide and men's violence against women.

About Response-Based Practice

Response-Based Practice is a specialized model for working with individuals and groups experiencing diversity, including violence and injustice. It acknowledges pre-existing competencies evident in everyday living and in the most adverse circumstances. The "problem" resides not in the minds/brains of isolated individuals but in mistreatment and humiliation of those individuals, in the context of violence and injustice, and through negative social responses from social network and institutional actors.
